<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course Title</th>
<th>Advanced Rural Development</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Instructor</td>
<td>Narufumi FUKUYO, Kazuhiro ITAMI</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Code</td>
<td>MA053200</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Semester</td>
<td>1st (April-)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Credit(s)</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Day/Period</td>
<td>Mon, 5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Description Code</td>
<td>A-ASE-632</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Outline

This course is designed to learn how to develop rural areas by reading and discussing papers about the history and practice of rural development.

Keywords

Rural Development, Rural History, Environment History, Community Design

Goals

Students can obtain the latest knowledge regarding history of agriculture and environment, and can understand how to design rural areas.

Diploma Policy: 1 Academic and research skills in the specialized field, 5 Disposition for vitalizing the local community

Course Plan

1. Introduction (ITAMI)
2. Rural History (ITAMI)
3. Environmental History (ITAMI)
4. History of Agriculture and Food Systems (ITAMI)
5. Community Empowerment (FUKUYO)
6. Community Design (FUKUYO)
7. Consensus Building (FUKUYO)
8. Prospect of Rural Development (FUKUYO)

Advice for Preview and Review

Read papers before class and summarize them.

Prerequisite

Handouts will be provided in class.

Grading Criteria

Based on report.

Texts/References

To be announced in the lectures.